THE LAST OF THE MODCOS.

Boston Charley, Black Jim, Schuchand Capt. Jack Dispatched to the Happy Hunting Grounds.

Description of the Execution by an Eye-Witness.

JACKSONVILLE, ORE., Oct. 3.—Your correspondent left Fort Klamath this morning at 10:30 o'clock, and by hard riding arrived here a few minutes ago. The following is a report of the execution of Captain Jack and his band: Boston Charley and Black Jim were led on the scaffold first, and Schuchin next. They trod on it with apparent indifference, and from nerve having evidently resolved to die as brave as they lived. Jack went easily up the stairway, but looked wretched and miserable. Their manacles had been struck off, but their arms were severely pinched with cords.

At precisely 9:45 the interpreters, Capt.
O. C. Applegate and David Hill, explained to the culprits the nature of the order to be read to them by the Adjutant, and at 10 A. M. Adjutant Kingsbury read the orders promulgating the sentence of the Commission and the President's order therein, with the orders of the Secretary of War and Department Commander in the premises. The two reprobates, prisoners, Barcho and Sloutz, yet stood on the ground in front of the scaffold shaking and under guard. During the reading of the orders the pined victims were seated on the platform of the scaffold with their feet on the drop, listening anxiously, but of course not understanding a word of it. The reading occupied ten minutes.
Then the Adjutant read the order of commutation in the cases of Barcho and Sloutz, and the poor fellows were taken back to the stockade, evidently happy at not accompanying the others to the happy hunting grounds. The Chaplain then offered an earnest and fervid prayer for the souls of the culprits, which was listened to attentively.

At 10:15 the fatal nooses were placed around their necks under the direction of Capt. Hoge. It was necessary to cut off a little of Jack's long hair, which was in the way of the rope. Capt. Hoge then led him away to the prisoners and the black caps were placed over the heads of all the culprits. It must have been an awful moment. At 10:20 they stood on the drop and the rope was cut by the assistant at a signal made from Capt. Hoge's handkerchief. The bodies swung round and round, Jack and Jim apparently dying easily, but Boston and Schuchin suffering terrible convulsions. Boston and Schuchin repeatedly drew up their legs, but the others seemed to die almost instantly. At 10:35 their pulses were felt by Capt. Hoge, and as it was, they were swinging lifeless in the air. As the drop fell with a terrible dash, four poor wretched human beings fell into eternity.
A half smothered cry of horror went up from the crowd of over five hundred Klamath Indians, who witnessed the awful spectacle. Wails of deep and bitter anguish went up from the stockade where the wives and children of the poor fellows had a fair view of the shocking scene. The coffin, six in number, had been placed directly in the rear of the gallows, but two of them were destined to be unoccupied, and the other commencing the unoccupied of Barcho and Sloutz only arrived at 10:30 last evening, and preparation had been made for them likewise.
An application was made this morning by the Sheriff of Jackson county, for the body of the Indians indicted by the grand jury, to General Wheaton, but it was refused.

Manufacturers' Meeting at Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 4.—A meeting of the manufacturers of Pittsburgh was held yesterday afternoon to take action in reference to the present condition of financial affairs and to determine what course to pursue in regard to the running of their establishments.

The following resolutions were adopted.
Resolved, In order that the employee and employer may each contribute to the best interest of this community, and restore our moneyed institutions in a measure from the excessive drain of currency we recommend that the manufacturers make payments not to exceed one-half of the amount due the employees each pay day on and after this date until the currency and exchange of the country assume their normal condition.

Resolved, That by doing this the manufacturer and workman will co-operate and each contribute to the best interests of this community, insuring the running of the mills and factories, relieving our banks from an excessive drain of currency and aiding in restoring confidence, which alone is needed to give a complete return to our wanted prosperity.

The meeting was the largest that has been held here for years, representing three-fourths of the manufacturing interests of the city, and was harmonious and polished in its proceedings.

THE EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.

Proceedings in Saturday's Session.
New York, Oct. 4.—The morning session of the Evangelical Alliance was brought to a close by the reading of a paper by Rev. C. Dallas on the communion of saints.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the afternoon session Bishop Bedell, of Ohio, read a paper. After paying a high respect to the virtues of the late Bishop McViney, Bishop Bedell continued: "It is charged that Protestantism is a failure, because of its division into sects; but uniformly it is not a church nor a nation. There was no uniformity in the Church from the beginning. Union is not unity. There can be a union between denominations which ignore mere differences. To-day the sects under the mask of Rome are contending more fiercely than the Protestants. Denominational differences exist from national prejudices, physical build, and mental capacities, and we will have denominations until truth and free thought are crushed out.
Differences in the church are the necessary preservatives of a free people. We are living under a law in which denominationalism is a crime. There is a union with the Father, with Christ, and with the purpose of the church; the union for which Christ prayed; the union of the Father and the son. It can now be seen that the prayer of Christ has not been answered, and the church has always maintained that unity with which denominational distinctions are consistent." Rev. Dr. Cook, of Paris, followed Bishop Bedell and said, there was now here more unity among Christians than in France.
The Protestant pastors are in perfect accord as to their ordination, and it was a common thing for the three principal protestant churches to unite with the reformed church in the solemn act of ordination. The Young Men's Christian Association and Sunday schools of France are founded on the principles of the Evangelical Alliance. At the bedside of Adolph Monot, pastors of different denominations were called by his own commissioner, and he administered holy communion. Never was the word Frangical so well known in Paris as in the war of 1871 when there were Evangelical Alliance ambulances. In the days of the commune the brethren used to hold a united meeting for counsel. In the conference the speaker said that the Evangelical Alliance was the frequent interchange of pulpits.

Rev. W. Noel of Berlin delivered an address in German.
Rev. F. Conrad of Philadelphia delivered an address on the interchange of pulpits, maintaining that the interchange should be maintained by the Evangelical Alliance.
Next week an opportunity will be given the delegates for the interchange and declaration of their opinions on papers read.
The conference will terminate on Sunday evening, 14th inst. To-morrow afternoon communion service will be held in Rev. Dr. Adams' church and in the Shoehedrak. Oriental convert from Pantheism, will assist. This gentleman wishes it stated that he cannot possibly accept half the invitations he has received to make addresses, but arrangements will be made that all attending Conference may hear him. His remarkable course in the case of the Chinese is well known, and he is regarded as a powerful agent of God's word in influencing the souls of men.

To-morrow evening Hon. F. R. Brunot will preside at the meeting in the Academy of Music, while another meets in Steinway Hall. Monday evening the conference will be divided into two sections, theological and philosophical. The exercises at Association hall on Monday evening will be conducted in the French language, and on Wednesday there will be services in the Welsh language. Tuesday afternoon there will be a service in Madison square for the faculty and students of the different denominations attending the conference. On Wednesday next Brooklyn will formally receive delegates, and in the evening a dinner will be given them in the Academy of Music. On another evening a public meeting will be held in the same building, when addresses will be made by foreign and native members of the Evangelical Alliance.
The Alliance has accepted an invitation to visit Washington on the 14th inst., and will hold public meetings at the Metropolitan Church on the 14th and 15th inst., at which President Grant and the members of the Cabinet have been invited to attend.

Early to-day the announcement was made that some of the Aldermen had refused to sign the call for a special meeting on Monday to vote the Evangelical Alliance to the city to the Evangelical Alliance, but the requisite number of signatures was obtained by three o'clock. The members of the Evangelical Alliance, as German members, were not attached at that hour, and two of them had refused to sign.

PROCEEDINGS SUNDAY EVENING.

New York, Oct. 5.—There was an immense audience in the Academy of Music this evening at the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance. Felix R. Brunot presided. The Dean of Canterbury conducted the services. The meeting was a grand success, and was expected when they departed they would carry away a stronger resolution to fight as soldiers of Christ.

Rev. Robert Knox, of Belfast, Ireland, was the first speaker. He struck the keynote of the meetings by an eloquent appeal to the Christian spirit. He said that the great end of the time would come when all will be brought to God and peace will reign on earth.
The President here observed, if the promise of the conversion of the natives is being realized in India, why not amongst American Indians.
Rev. Dr. Conlin, of Geneva, delivered an address in French, on the relations of Christianity, and modern progress.
Rev. W. S. Stevenson, of Dublin, said he represented the least of the lands, yet one destined, it seemed, to play an important part. After advertising to the emigrants which that land is sending forth to raise it might be a perplexing problem in other lands. He said our great land identified for good or ill with any own the one trust we may help ourselves and us, and seek the solution of these problems in our land is to send out streams for the healing of nations instead of for

NEW YORK CITY.

Suspension of Peak, Opydyke & Co.— Propositions for Settlement with Creditors.

New York, October 4.—The Bulletin announces the suspension of Peak, Opydyke & Co.'s large dry goods house. Their liabilities amount to about $2,500,000. They propose to pay in full with interest, as follows: 10 per cent at 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 15 and 18 months respectively.
The proposition of Peak & Co. also dry goods, submitted to their creditors, is as follows, on their $1,400,000 of their indebtedness they offer with interest: 10 per cent at 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 15 and 18 months respectively.

SUSPENDED FIRMS READMITTED TO THE
STOCK EXCHANGE.
New York, October 4.—Robinson & Suydam, Smith & Seaver and C. G. White, who temporarily suspended, have settled to-day, and were admitted to the Stock Exchange.

THE MOVEMENT FOR PUBLIC ENTERTAIN-MENT OF THE ALLIANCE.

A call for a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen, Monday, to tender hospitalities of the city to the Evangelical Alliance, has thus far received but three signatures. The majority of the Board of Aldermen have refused to sign, asserting that the Alliance is a sectarian body, and should not receive recognition by official representing all sects.

ARREST OF GEN. RYAN, THE CURAN FILLI-DUSTER.

New York, Oct. 4.—General Ryan, of Cuban notoriety, was rearrested to-day on an old suit, his bondman having failed to justify.

THE WEEK'S MORTALITY.

The deaths this week were 507, a decrease of 106.

EX-CITY TREASURER SPRAGUE INDICTED.

The Grand Jury of Brooklyn to-day indicted John H. Sprague, ex-city treasurer, and Martin T. Rodman, his deputy, for embezzlement. The jury stated that after careful examination they found that only the above were concerned in the frauds.

KATE STODARD INDICTED.

Kate Stoddard was to-day indicted for the murder of her husband.

THE COTTON EXCHANGE TO-DAY SUBscribed $1,500 for the yellow fever sufferers in Memphis.

The Produce Exchange has resolved to ask for admission into National Board of Trade.

DISAPPEARANCE OF A NICE YOUNG MAN AND DISCOVERY OF A DEFICIENCY IN HIS ACCOUNTS.

New York, Oct. 4.—John Howard Young, order clerk in the Brooklyn postoffice, has been missing from his desk since Saturday last, and a hurried examination of his accounts shows that a deficiency exists. An expert accountant has been called in to examine the books and ascertain the exact amount. Mr. Young was looked on as an honest officer, and his place in the Sunday school and church of which he was a member, was never vacant.

New York, Oct. 5.—Ten thousand dollars worth of goods were stolen from the store of G. J. Meyer yesterday.

The statement by Lucette Meyer to a reporter yesterday, that she was in Good-rich's house and in the next room when he was murdered March 17th, is generally discredited.

The Apollo Hall Democratic Executive Committee to-day voted to support the regular nominations made at Union.

The main pipe of the Hoboken water works burst last night, a water famine ensuing.
The Cotton Exchange yesterday raised $1000 for Memphis.
Seyliss oil cloth factory burned last night. Loss $60,000.

The Proposed Change in the Method of Presidential Elections.

MEETING OF THE CONGRESSIONAL COM-MITTEE IN NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 4.—The meeting of the Committee on Privileges and Elections of the U. S. Senate, to consider the plan of changing the Constitution with regard to the method of electing President, which was taken place here to-day.
The meeting was not held in consequence of the absence of a quorum. Senators Morton, Carpenter, Anthony and Bayard only being present. Senator Anthony, in answer to inquiries, said it would be impossible to indicate the character of the committee's report. He was certain, however, that the method of electing President by direct vote would not be recommended for the reason that it would be impossible to get necessary two-thirds vote in the Senate for such a plan. Certain deficiencies in the present method, which expedience had made manifest, would doubtless be supplied in a general revision of the method of electing the city to-day.

New York, Oct. 4.—Evening.—Falling to get a quorum this afternoon there was no meeting of the Senate Committee to consider the subject of a change in the method of electing President of the United States.

CINCINNATI.

THE WEEK CLOSURES WITH IMPROVED CON-FIDENCE IN FINANCIAL CIRCLES.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 4.—There is nothing very important here relative to the financial situation. The week closes with improved confidence. The number of hands thus far discharged by manufacturers on account of the stringency is small.

CLOSE OF THE EXPOSITION.

The Exposition closed to-night, with an attendance of 16,000 for the day. The entire receipts have been $58,000. The Art hall will probably be kept open for a few days longer. The Exposition has cleared expenses and left a surplus, the exact amount of which cannot be ascertained at present.

NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4.—The New Orleans Banking Association, C. Cavarock President, in accordance with a resolution of the Board of Directors last evening, goes into liquidation, and will be placed in the hands of a receiver. Owing to the assistance extended the bank by its President, the house of Cavarock & Son has also failed.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—President Grant will not, as he intended, be present at the reunion of the Army of Tennessee. He will remain here to receive, in company with his cabinet, the Evangelical Alliance who will visit Washington on the 14th inst., and remain two days.

THE TURF.

The Fall Meeting at Jerome Park.

New York, October 4.—The fall meeting of the American Jockey Club at Jerome Park opened to-day most formidably.
The first race was for a purse of $400, entrance money to the second horse, three quarters of a mile. Artist, Quits, Free Lance, Wizard, Bessie, Leo, and Kadi and Cariboo, started. The race was won by Wizard. Time—1:19.

The second race was for Jerome stakes for three year olds, $100 each, half mile, with $1,500 added by the Club and $500 in plate by Leonard Jerome. The second horse to receive $300 out of the stakes. There were seventy nominations, but only five horses came to the starting post, viz: McGrath's Tom Bowling, Daniel's Springbok, Belmont's Count D'Orey, Little's Fellow Craft, and Glenn's O. P.
The distance was two miles. Bowling took the lead just after the start, and kept it to the end, winning, with Springbok close on his quarters and Fellow Craft a good second. Time 3:40, not official.

The judges refused to publish the time giving as the reason that the start was a bad one.
Bowling won easily, his rider turning in his saddle after passing the distance stand and laughing at his competitors. The reason why no official time was given was that the judges thought the start was a bad one, and they neglected the start watches.
Third race was for nursery stakes for two year olds of $50 each, with $1,000 added; second horse to receive $200; one mile. Eleven horses started out of fifty-four nominations. The race was won by Denison and Crawford's chestnut colt, Littell's light grey, time 1:47.

The fourth race was the Manhattan handicap sweepstakes of fifty dollars each, half mile, with five hundred dollars added, second horse to receive two hundred dollars. The entries closed with twenty-eight nominations. Mile and a quarter. The following horses started: Horse, Heston, Fresco, Mildew, Bolus, Stockwood, Survivor, Minnie M. Stonehenge and Joe Johnston. The horses got off in a bunch. When passing under the string the first time Bolus was leading, with Bassett lapping his quarters, Bassett could not keep up the pace, and the last was won by Shylcock. Bolus and soon took the lead, Mildew running into the second place, Bolus third and Bassett fourth. In this order the race was finished, Joe Johnston being last.
Time, 2:13.

The fifth race was for a purse of $500, the winner to be sold at auction for $1,500 or to carry seven pounds extra. It was run for $1,000, allowed five pounds extra, for $500, twelve pounds extra, all surplus entrance money to go to the second money. One mile and three-quarters.
Artist, Wheatly, Wild Idle, Mate, Hattie, O'Neil and Ulita started. Mate won.
Time, 2:10.

The sixth race, match for $1,000, half mile heats, between Girl of the Period and Ophelia, was won by the former. No time taken.

The seventh race, match for $500 each, between Shylcock and Mab, was finely contested, the first heat being dead and
Time, 2:13.
